A note from Fr. Abuchi

"Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof..."

The 'roof' part really bothers some Catholics. "I don't have a roof," said some of us. "I'm a person, not a house with a roof." The roof imagery is taken from the account of the centurion that is found in the Gospels of both Matthew and Luke, who asks Jesus to only say the word to heal his gravely ill servant, even as he acknowledges that he is not worthy to invite Jesus into his home, "under his roof".

In many ways, the centurion recognizes that a special power is at work in Jesus of Nazareth. Since so much of the Lord's public ministry took place in the area around Capernaum, it is most likely that the centurion saw Jesus and heard him speak on various occasions. Probably he witnessed some of the incredible miracles that Jesus performed there. "In light of the evidence, the centurion draws the only logical conclusion: Jesus commands with divine power." Thus, he believes Jesus could easily cure his ailing servant by only power of His words.

Believing this as well, we must have confidence in the Lord who makes it easy for us to approach Him. He invites us into His house, and offers us the divine food of His Body and Blood. However like Centurion none of us is worthy to receive him. Nevertheless, we should strive to make ourselves more worthy, especially by getting rid of any serious sins (through sacrament of reconciliation) on our hearts before going to Communion.

"Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed" is a small confession, an act of humility, and a prayer for absolution moments before Communion. As we approach that sacred banquet, we do well to imitate the humility and trust of the centurion, in the hope of receiving the healing and wholeness we desire.

- Fr. Abuchi

The Tricky Tray needs help!

It's time to start planning our annual tricky tray. The tricky tray is our LARGEST fundraiser of the year, which provides us with funds to help defray our annual maintenance costs and any unexpected expenses that might come up during the year. The last couple of years, our volunteer base has been dwindling and it is getting harder and harder to continue with this important fundraiser. Please take time to consider volunteering some of your time to this important parish event. Please contact Jenn Durso (862-268-3462) or Maureen Riva (973-632-0163) for more information.

Eucharistic Ministers -

We are seeking the assistance of Eucharistic Ministers to help to bring Holy Communion to the residents of the Homestead Nursing Home on Sundays.

The dates of service is based upon the number of ministers who volunteer. As of now each minister serves at the Homestead one Sunday every five weeks.

It is a very rewarding experience to bring Holy Communion to those who have no way of going to Mass every Sunday.

If you are interested in joining us in this important ministry, kindly contact Dan Salvatore at 973-579-1908, or via e-mail at dan958@embarqmail.com

Lord reminds us of the abundant blessings that come from a generous heart. "Give and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you." When you give your time, talent and financial resources to our parish, it strengthens our faith community in so many wonderful ways!

Did you know that there are also opportunities to make a legacy gift to Our Lady of Mount Carmel that will touch the lives of parishioners for generations to come?

Please prayerfully consider remembering our parish in your will and estate plans. For more information, call our parish at 973-383-3566 or contact our diocesan development office at 973-777-8818, ext. 215 for further assistance and to discuss options that might work for you.
